

CM 708/709 EXPERIENTIAL MINISTRY: MASTER OF DIVINITY

Program Coordinator: Blayne Banting, DMin, PhD | bbanting@briercrest.ca | 306.801.4763

GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF EXPERIENTIAL MINISTRY

This course is an extended Experiential Ministry (EM) carried forward under the direction of a previous or new Ministry Mentor (MM) that is designed to further the development of the skills and knowledge necessary for effective ministry. The student may pursue this ministry experience within his/her own home church/organization or seek placement in a new ministry context. This course requires direct ministry experience and typically is taken over at least two semesters of study (eight months), with the preference being 10 months, if possible.

Note: CM 708 and CM 709 are designed to be taken together for a total of 6 credit hours.

Prerequisites: Completion of 6 credit hours of study in addition to the completion of CM 608/609 Experiential Ministry, as well as acceptance into the MDiv program.

DESIRED OUTCOMES

1. One who is informed theologically
(Articulate and apply evangelical theology that demonstrably arises out of Scripture and finds expression in all areas of life and ministry.)
2. One who performs missionally
(Be equipped for serving the local church and its global mission.)
3. One who is formed spiritually
(Demonstrate growth as a disciple of Jesus Christ.)
4. One who makes disciples capably
(Demonstrate a capacity to guide individuals and congregations in disciple-making.)
5. One who preaches faithfully
(Demonstrate a capacity to preach sermons using a sound homiletical method.)
6. One who leads proficiently
(Demonstrate a capacity to lead within the local church or ministry organization in carrying out its mission with both theological sophistication and cultural awareness.)

EXPERIENTIAL MINISTRY (EM) REQUIREMENTS

A. Choosing the Ministry Context and Ministry Mentor

A great deal depends on the 'fit' between the student and the ministry context and the 'fit' between student and Ministry Mentor (MM). These two relationships need to be discerned carefully for the EM to be successful. The choice of the ministry context and MM should begin well before the EM begins so that all parties involved – the student, the MM and the FS (Faculty Supervisor, who often will be the Program Coordinator) - are all in agreement. First, the student is to arrange a preliminary interview with the Faculty Supervisor (FS) to discuss the possibility of the EM. Second, the student is to arrange for a preliminary interview with a representative(s) of the ministry context, with the potential MM present, for the purpose of determining a healthy ministry 'fit'. An application form for the MM to be submitted to the FS is included in this syllabus. Upon receiving the application form the FS may follow up with further interaction if more information is needed. Normally the MM would participate in some foundational mentorship training supplied by Briercrest Seminary, but experienced mentors will have this requirement waived. Once these preliminary stages are complete, the details of the EM may be planned. (Note: If the MM for CM 708/09 is the same as CM 608/09, this preliminary part of the process is waived.) The MM is making a significant investment in both time and energy since serving in this role requires a weekly meeting with the student, monthly phone or video calls with the FS and mid-point and final evaluations of the student.

B. Pre-Experiential Ministry Reading and Self-Assessment (10%)

Obtain and read The Emotionally Healthy Leader by Peter Scazzero (Grand Rapids, MI: Zondervan, 2015).

- a. Write a 4-page response paper on the content of the book. This is not to be a classic book review but should focus on your reactions to the author's arguments and how they have affected your understanding and practice of ministry.
- b. Take and communicate the results of the personal emotionally healthy assessment available online at: www.emotionallyhealthy.org/personalassessment
- c. Complete and submit the results of the self-assessment inventories found in each chapter of the book.
- d. Submit your family genogram (cf. pp. 74, 75 and Appendix 2 in EHL) and by accessing www.emotionallyhealthy.org/genogram
- e. Submit how you have climbed the Ladder of Integrity (cf. p. 220) in relation to one situation in your ministry.
- f. Answer the Power Inventory questions (pp. 250-53).
- g. Compile all the above into a single document and email it to the Program Coordinator.

C. Pre-Experiential Ministry Evaluation (10%)

This EM presupposes the successful completion of CM 608/609. Students will opt either to carry forward under the same Ministry Mentor (MM) as in CM 608/609 or under a new MM with new responsibilities and ministry opportunities.

After some prayer and reflection, identify at least four of the following people with which to engage in a conversation (no time restriction, but we recommend at least 30 minutes minimum each) about your past year's ministry experience:

- Ministry Mentor from most recent ministry (required)
- A recipient of your ministry (where possible, e.g., person in your small group, youth in your youth group, etc.)
- Local church leadership person (elder, department director, etc.) other than your supervisor
- Personal Peer/Friend who knows you at a spiritual level
- A ministry colleague either in another church or organization or department other than your own

There is no set of questions to cover for your conversation, but it would be helpful to steer the conversation around the following three main points:

- Ministry practices – how you have performed at fulfilling the main ministry activities
- Leadership and organizational practices – how you influenced those above, around and below you, and how well you kept your ministry life organized
- Spiritual and personal practices – how you kept balance in your devotional life, family, other volunteer situations, etc.

After the reflection and conversation, write up a 5-6-page self-evaluation report based on the conversation and any of your own post-evaluation reflections from the last EM. Include the following:

- a. Any new observations or insights your conversation partners note about your ministry strengths and weaknesses, your leadership/organizational practices, and your spiritual and personal practices
- b. Any highlights of your ministry time noted by any of the conversation partners
- c. Any recommendations the conversation partners have for you to be more effective
- d. Two personal and spiritual growth goals you would like to accomplish in the next phase of Experiential Ministry
- e. Two professional ministry goals you wish to accomplish in the next phase of Experiential Ministry

- f. Two leadership and organizational goals you wish to accomplish in the next phase of Experiential Ministry

Due: at the beginning of the EM.

D. Experiential Ministry Proposal and Registration Form (10%)

Your proposal should focus on your primary emphasis in your EM (i.e., Pastoral, Youth, Worship Leadership, etc.). Begin with the list of desired outcomes for the EM which derive from the overall outcomes for the MDiv degree (these are listed above). The substance of the ministry activities should be aimed at achieving these outcomes. Be sure to incorporate findings from your peer and self-evaluation (A and B above) in your plan as you move forward. With the outcomes in mind, provide a list of possible ministry activities and ask your Ministry Mentor (MM) to do the same. Meet with your MM and synthesize both lists into a first draft of your “Experiential Ministry Proposal”. This should be a draft with which you both can agree and eventually sign.

1. Formulate a finished copy of your Experiential Ministry Proposal by stating your proposed experiences as specific and measurable goals. Begin with an opening paragraph that notes the place, organization name, and dates of the EM. In this paragraph also include the name of your MM, and her/his title and role at the organization. Having completed the introductory paragraph, organize your specific activities under the six desired outcomes for your EM. Include the 8-10 books you will read as part of the EM that relate to your particular ministry context (i.e. youth, camp, pastoral, etc.).
2. Submit your EM Proposal, in correct BCS format, to your Briercrest Faculty Supervisor (FS). Use the most current Chicago-Style Format Guide. Your FS will either approve it or return it for revisions. If it is returned to you for revisions, you will need to resubmit your EM Proposal until it is approved.
3. Once your EM Proposal is approved, you will need to complete the “Experiential Ministry Registration Form” (at the end of this syllabus) and submit it to your Faculty Supervisor (FS). You and your Ministry Mentor (MM) will need to sign it. Your FS must be your program coordinator, unless other arrangements are made with your program coordinator. The EM Registration Form will then be forwarded on to the Academic Services Office, and at that point in time, you will be registered for the course. Termination of the EM before the time frame listed in the Proposal may be initiated by the EM student, MM or FS, provided a justifiable rationale is given. If initiated by the EM student, the usual Briercrest guidelines for tuition refund and assigned grade on the student’s transcript will apply (cf. Seminary Calendar, p. 20).

Due: 2 weeks after the Pre-EM Assignments

E. Journal (25%)

The student will maintain a weekly Experiential Ministry Journal for the duration of the EM. Each entry should be typed and indicate the time period being covered. The journal will be graded according to consistency, reflection and self-awareness. This journal should include the following information, arranged under the following headings:

1. Participation: List the ministry activities or other activities in which you were involved during the week.
2. Theological Reflection: Choose one significant event from the past week and analyze it by considering the following questions: What is going on? (description of the event including the persons involved and its context); Why is this going on? (interpretation of the event including the possible theological, cultural and experiential factors involved); What ought to be going on? (evaluation of the event employing the appropriate theological, cultural and experiential resources); and How might I respond? (action/response to the event including what can be done, what can be learned and what impact this event has made on your identity as a servant of Christ and his church).
3. Problem Solving: Describe any problems you may have encountered during the week and how you handled them.
4. Prayer/Bible Study/Spiritual Development: Relate how the Lord used His Word to influence your ministry over the week. What specifically have you been praying for in your ministry this week, and what answers to prayer have you seen?
5. Personal Goals: With rationale, list specific and measurable progress you have made toward the 6 EM outcomes throughout the past week and then set progress goals for the next week.
6. Ministry Mentor (MM) Interaction: Describe your interaction with your MM during the week. Include discussion of assigned readings.
7. Reading: Provide the dates and chapters you read from the books in your EM reading list and reflect on the chapters, noting their application to your current ministry experiences. Note significant quotes, and questions related to your reading. You should try to average the completion of a book per month.
8. Time Investment: Show a log of time invested. Include the when, where and who aspects.
9. Provide outlines and manuscripts of teaching/preaching sessions.

Due: Although the journal is to be kept weekly, the first submission of the student's journal will be submitted two weeks following the start date and then submitted monthly for the duration of the EM. At the conclusion of the EM the entire journal will be submitted as a whole.

F. Mid-course Evaluation (10%)

At the midway point of the EM, the student, MM and FS will meet either in person or by video conference to assess the progress of the EM. The EM Proposal will serve as the chief assessment tool as the discussion will center around the progress being made to meet its requirements. This meeting will highlight the learnings and possible challenges experienced to date and possible strategies for the successful completion of the EM.

Due: At the mid-point of the EM

G. Post-Experiential Ministry Evaluation and Reflection (15%)

At the conclusion of the EM, the student will write an 1800-2000-word summative reflection paper addressing the following areas:

1. An analysis of the student's personal strengths and weaknesses, as discovered and developed during the EM.
2. Areas of growth and development experienced during the EM (relating to the 6 outcomes for the course).
3. Reflection upon the concrete ways the student has grown in making disciples both with individuals and congregations.
4. An evaluation of the correlation between the student's relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ, and his/her effectiveness in ministry.
5. A strategy for further development of reflective thinking and personal development in the areas of ministry skills in which he/she participated.
6. A summary of the impact of the Ministry Mentor (MM) on the student's ministry, and life in general.
7. An anticipation of the kind of ministry directions the student will take in the future, including a statement on areas where it has been made clear that they are not likely to proceed.
8. An overall analysis of the progress made during CM 708/09 Experiential Ministry toward mastery of the 6 outcomes for the EM since the completion of CM 608/09 Experiential Ministry.

Due: At the conclusion of the EM.

Note: this assignment is required in the graduation portfolio.

H. Ministry Mentor's Evaluation of the Student (20%)

Having reviewed the initial Experiential Ministry Proposal, the Ministry Mentor (MM) will submit an evaluation of the student (using the specified form below). Any questions can be directed to the Program Coordinator at any of the contact choices at the beginning of this syllabus.

Due: At the conclusion of the EM.
